State officials Sunday for the first time as planned, closed a snowclogged section of freeway (I-75) near Indian River in worthern Cheboygan county.

Early last week state officials announced a plan to shut down freeways in snowclogged areas this winter to keep motorists from being stranded. Sunday's closing of the 30-mile stretch of 1-75 between Indian River and the Mackinac bridge was the first such closing.

Nearly 10 mehes of snow was damped on the that area Sunday and the stretch of 1-75 was closed by state police and state highway department officials after two chain-reaction accidents left about 30 cars stranded. Traffic was re-routed onto US-31 in the area, until 1-75 was reopened around 8 p.m. after being sint down for three

Elsewhere in Michigan, snow showers or flurries combined today the coldest day of fall. Morning temperatures ranged from one below in Alpena to 15 in Detreit.

Locally lows of eight were reported in Past Past and at The Herald-Palladium's recording thermometer in Benton Harbor. Herb Teichman, Eau Claire fruit grower, reported a low of nine with three inches of new snew on the ground.

Except for a time along Lake

Michigan from New Buffalo to South Haven, the rest of southwestern Maringan received from two to three inches of new snow during the night and early this morning. It was still snowing in most areas as of 9 a.m. A half-inch to inch fell along the hig lake's shareline.

Roads throughout southwestern Michigan were reported snow covered and slippery. No schools were reported closed, however. Other low temperatures reported were 11 at the Sodus Agricultural Experiment station, 14 at the Twin Cities airport, Benton Harbor, and 10 in Bloomingdale.

Visibility was reported at only 50 feet.

A stretch of Michigan highway 27 in that area was also closed briefly Sunday.

Today's forecast for southwestern Michigan calls for additional snow accumulation with lows tonight from four to 10 degrees. Additional showers are expected Wednesday through Friday, more frequent near Lake Michigan. It's not expected to warm up until Thursday.

Announcement was made this week of a $12,000 addition to the present warehouses of the Theisen-Clemens Oil company at the foot of Broad street in St. oseph. The new fireproof addition, f0x100 feet in size, will be built by the Max W. Stock Construction company. The building will be one story high. In the spring of 1927, the same company plans to construct a two-story office building ad-joining the site of the new warehouse.

Announcement was made Sa-turday by the William Moulds Brass Foundry company of extensive expansion plans for the immediate future. Beginning at once, a two-story structure, 24 by 50 feet in depth, will be ad-ded to the present plant facili-ties, increasing the plant capacity by 60 per cent. The addition, of brick and steel construction. adjoins the present plant on Ninth and Oak streets, Benton Harbor.

A Dishonorable Abuse Of Power

WASHINGTON - No sooner had the Democrats seized the White House with promises of restoring confidence in the political system than one of their own was blackening that system anew

Wendell Anderson, governor of Minnesota, is the culprit. Hisses and fie on him. Faced with the duty of naming a Senate replacement for Walter Mondale, who is stepping up to lower things, Anderson decided there was only one man in the state with enough competence and enough stature to replace Mundale: Wendell Anderson.

Ergo the governor has conceived an unhappy plan to further his own interests. He will resign his present office, allowing Lt. Gov. Budy Perpich to take over. Perpich will then select Anderson — who, after all, will be out of work and essentially a wasted resource to be the new junior senator from the land of 10,000 lakes.

Anderson is aware there will be criticism of his action. Already a poll has been conducted indicating that 55 per cent of the Minnesotans questioned do not want the governor to elect himself to the Senate. But since the polls have no authority, and since politics is often the art of preventing people from engaging in what is their own business. Anderson insists all skepticism will be disregarded.

"I'm sure some will react negatively," the governor says, "but I hope that my work in the Senate will earn their support and justify my election to a full term in 1978." Displaying no shame at all, Anderson is already campaigning for a Senate career, and what with the incumbent's advantage he is bestowing on himself he'll likely get it.

That the Minnesotan has yearned for a national pulpit has been apparent for years. A one-time Olympic hockey player and attorney, he has been in political office for 18 of his 43 years, and has been this decade. Curly haired eyed, moderate in all things including philosophy. He is a prodigy of Hubert Humphrey and a ripening favorite of his mighty party.

He is a bit too Democratic. perhaps. At the past party convention, as chairman of the platform committee, Anderson fought hard for a rule — a loyalty oath, really — which would force all candidates to promise allegiance to the even-tual pornince. Thus he wanted Jimmy Carter and company to swear fidelity even if George Wallace was the pick. This he argued was for the good of the party, hence the Republic.

But extremism in defense of Democratic unity isn't a vice, not to those who can add registration figures. And it is this sort of devotion which has led Democrats to believe Anderson is too big for a mere guberna torial chair. With his good looks and fortuitous attitude, they say, he could be president some day. But not by staying in Minnesota; governors have a way of working themselves into

And so, by golly, it is not just for the good of Minnesota that Wendelt Anderson is using his office for personal gain, it is in effect for the good future of America. This no doubt is the America. This no doubt is the same rationale used by George Wallace in 1966, when, forced out of office by Alabama law, he threw his cancer-stricken wife into the political arena so that he could continue to selflessly confused with Wallace. And yet his decision is of the same odor. Public office is not given so that holders can use it for their own ends. Besides, surely the people should have something to say about their congressional representation: Walter Mondale was himself a political appoin-tee to the Senate; and thus Anderson will only continue that unfortunate way of making

Many Are Eager To Lead GOP

WASHINGTON - The question now for Republicans as they leave the White House after eight controversial years, is how long the party will be suggested things are so that the party ought to change its name. But the party is basically no worse off than it was in 1964, following the Goldwater debacke. Only four years later the Republicans come host. the Republicans came back to capture the White House.

And there is no lack of volunteers eager to lead the GOP back into the Oval Office. Three prominent optimists are already moving to position themselves for a notential presidential bid in 1980 — Reagan, Sen. Howard Baker of Tennessee, and former Texas have discussed the possibility of running with associates and have indicated they intend to remain visible in the coming months on the GOP lecture circuit while they assess their prospects.

Sen. Charles Percy of Illinois, who has flirted with the idea in the past, is also interested in running, but does not plan as extensive a speaking program for next year as the others (not for the moment, at least). Percy, 57, may be handicapped by his identification with the liberal wing of the party, which has not controlled the GOF convention in two decades.

In addition, some of the newly-elected GOP officials are known to be ambitious for the White House and may make a move later, most notably Gov.elect James Thompson Illinois and Sen, elect Richard Lugar of Indiana.

President Ford has indicated he intends to play an active role in party affairs, presumably including influencing the selection of his successor. From outward signs, it appears that Connally is currently his favorite.

There is some doubt, however, about how much Ford could actually affect the numination. Party professionals tend to be reluctant to listen a second time to a titlar leader Iresh from leading them down

Reagan's motives areunclear. At 65, he may be seeking to keep his name alive as a presidential possibility more to assure the choice of a compatible conservative next time than in any serious campaign to win the nomination

But Baker, 51, and Connally are unquestionably serious. Baker, acquaintances say, is motivated not only because he senses opportunity in a power vacuum but also by the humiliation be felt in Kansas City when Ford passed him over for vice president and chose the less-qualified Robert Dole.

Connally, 59, was unable to save Texas for Ford and his efforts to raise funds for GOP congressmen didn't produce the healthy increase in House seats he had predicted. But he has landed on his feet, as always, and was recently presented an award by the President for raising the most money for the Republican National Committee of any individual this year (more thus $3 million). He also remains a popular speaker, and wilf be a featured attraction at the GOP governors' convention next week

George Meany has made it perfectly clear he wants some checks cashed by the Carter Administration.

Carter has expressed support for much of what Meany is demanding. Simultaneously the President-elect has pledged to balance the federal budget by the end of his first term.

Businessmen are wary he can sooth Meany and match income with spending except by a new round of taxes.

Nonetheless, there may be a few breaks in the clouds.

As a businessman himself, Carter knows what has to be done to run a solvent operation.

He has expressed only days ago what could be taken as kindly words for Arthur Burns, the strongly opinionated chairman of the Federal Reserve Board. Burns is fluid on credit and money flow, but a staunch advocate for balanced budgets.

The latest rumor has it that Carter intends to bring Bert Lance, an Atlanta bankers and a political conservative, to Washington, either as Treasury Secretary or director of the Office of Budget and Management.

Pure advertising hyperbole? Maybe not. Reactions to early screenings of just the first 90 minutes of the new movie have been enthusiastic. Time magazine put Kong on its Oct. 25 cover and included a long, totally favorable article on the making of the movie. When King Kong opens on Friday, Dec. 17, in more than 1,000 movie theaters across the country, the public will have its chance to decide whether the early hype is warranted.

To remake a Hollywood "classic" is a chancy business. Show Boat has been done three times, with the second version generally considered to be the best. A third version of A Star Is Born, starring Barbra Streisand and Kris Kristofferson, is in the works. Usually, though, it is a mistake to redo a picture that was highly successful in its own time. The copy often is an overblown yet pallid imitation of the original. The recent trend toward sequels of such box-office hits as The Godfather and The French Connection appears to be less risky.

In the new King Kong, Jessica Lange will make her film debut as Dawn, the giant ape's love interest. Fay Wray played the part in the 1933 version. As for Kong himself, he is now 40 feet tall, supported by a 312-ton aluminum frame. His latex skin is covered with half a ton of horsehair. His innards consist of 3,100 feet of hydraulic hose and 4,500 feet of electrical wiring. It took 20 persons to operate the creature, each controlling a single body movement. Jobless Rate In Berrien Dips Sharply From 1975

Berrien county employment and unemployment both dropped last month from September, but the Michigan Employment Security commission (MESC) reported more people were employed last month than in October, 1975. The MESC said employment in Berrien totaled 64,800 last month, compared to 65,300 in September. In October of 1975 there were 64,300 people employed in Berrien county. The latest MESC figures showed a 9.7 per cent unemployment rate, compared to 13.8 per cent in October, 1975. The unemployment rate in September of this year was 9.9 per

Last month a seasonal decline brought the labor force down to 71,800, a drop of 700 from September. MESC said 64,800 people in the county were employed in October while 7,000 were jobless, putting unemployment at 9.7 per cent. In September, 65,300 people were employed and 7,200 were without jobs, making the unemployment rate 9.9 per cent. The October figures show that job losses were registered in both the manufacturing (300 jobs lost) and the non-manufacturing (200 jobs lost) sectors. Government employment rose 100 to 9,000 in October, said MESC

VAN BUREN LIBRARY

Offers Many Services

DECATUR - "The days are past," says Van Buren county library director Patricia Olsen, when people just come into read. We've got to give them something more."

That "something more", according to Mrs. Olsen, includes literally dozens of services ranging from children's story hours to a cross-indexed file of human service agencies in a 10-

'We try to answer anything we can over the phone," she said. "If we can't answer it right away we'll try to find out from someone who knows and then get back to the caller."

Mrs. Olsen admits that some of the requests for information are "pretty weird."

'We had one person who wanted to know how fast a deerfly flies," she said. In addition to the main Webster Memorial Library in Decatur, the county library system includes branch libraries in

Bangor, Bloomingdale, Covert,

Gobles, Lawrence, and Mat-Collectively, the system has some 89,000 books, including some 600 large print books for persons with vision problems, and over 100 periodicals, Mrs.

'Some people don't realize that even though our branches are quite small, they have access to all of the same materials and services as the main library," Mrs. Olsen said.

How fast does a deerfly fly? About 24 miles per hour, according to Mrs. Olsen.

Plan Story Hours

DECATUR - Story hours for children ages four through eight will be offered for eight weeks beginning the first week of December at the Mattawan. Covert and Gobles branch libraries of the Van Buren

At the Mattawan branch library the story hours will be held Wednesdays. Dec. through Jan. 19, at 3:30 p.m. The Covert branch will have story hours Thursdays, Dec. 2 through Jan. 20, at 5 p.m., and the Gobles branch library story hours will be held at 3:30 p.m. Fridays, Dec. 3 through Jan. 21.

Becky Covey, special services librarian, will lead the first story hour, entitled "Stories We Sing." She will present sound filmstrips of "The Fox Went "Frog-Went-A-Courtin". included will be stories, games and crafts for children.

Each child in attendance at the story hour will receive a free paperback book of one of the audio-visually stories. Free books will be given away periodically throughout the eight-week program to each child present.

Advance registration should be made at the branch libraries. The story hours are a free service made possible through the Federal Library Services and Construction Act Grant and are designed to encourage reading interest in young children.

Dr. Lester Coleman

Can you let us in on some of the secrets of bow doctors take care of their own illnesses? -Dear Miss E.:

That's a fine trap you've set for me. My confessional to you would have to reveal how careless I am, and I'm sure many other doctors are, about their own health.

The yearly examinations we recommend to our patients are overlooked far too often by many of us in the practice of medicine. Should a doctor sneeze or cough while examining a patient almost invariably he'll hear the factious comment, "I'll refer you to a good doctor!" Or, Doctor, you shouldn't be sick. After all, you know how to take care of yourself."

Actually, doctors are heir to all of the same physical and emotional problems that affect their patients. There is no greater fallacy than the belief that doctors are not vulnerable simply because they have a medical degree. I should add, in defense of the neglect by a doctor of his own health, that he is able to evaluate many symptoms as they arise and solve them him-Related to your question and my answer lies an important aspect of the relationship between ductors and their patients. Patients must realize that doctors do get sick. They do have emotionally trying situations within the framework of their home and family. They are burdened by all of the usychological and social aressures of modern society. An un-derstanding of this may make patients realize that the doctor cannot always be the Rock of Gibraltar at all hours of the day

Even the most patient and good-humored doctor will have an alteration of personality if outside pressures become bur densome. Mutual appreciation consistencies helps to solidify this important relationship.

Now, Miss E., I want to thank you for reminding me to set up an appointment for my annual physical! +++

The most popular substitute for aspirin is the drug ace-taminophen. It is generally ac-cepted to be safe and useful as a pain reliever. This drug, like any other drug taken in large quantitles, can be dangerous and can do damage to some of the vital organs of the body, es pecially the liver.

'Your Problems' By Ann Landers

An Old Urge Returns

Dear Ann: I have no one to turn to since I have exhausted my clergyman's time and patience. Will you listen?

When I was in my late teens, I had a homosexual relationship with my anthropology professor. I was deeply in love with him. Upon graduation, he left me and I turned to a psychiatrist. I was in therapy for three years, after which I was able to give up all homosexual relationships. .

During my therapy I met a wonderful girl and was relieved and pleased wh I was able to manage with her sexually.

Now, 15 years later, I am married to this wonderful girl and we have two lovely sons. My problem is this: I find myself yearning for the love of a man again. Sex with my wife is possible but not very exciting. On numerous occasions I nave invented excuses to sneak off and visit gay bars.

everything a jacket should be!

My needs are becoming more and more insistent. I now believe all the therapy I went through was for my parents' sake because they refused to accept me as I was. I even feel that the psychiatrist was not looking out for my best interest.

Should I discuss my past and my present feelings with my wife or should I just run off and fulfill my desires? Please help me. - M.E.K.

Dear M.E.K.: Get back into therapy and see what happens. Give it six months. If after that time you still have the desire for a homosexual relationship, tell your wife about it and decide together the best way to deal with the problem.

Sandbox Hilton

I saw our youngest, Brucie, digging in the shrubbery the other day with a soup spoon and said to my husband, "Brucie needs a little sandbox. I saw one in the toy department at Crooks for $12.88 with a little seat in each corner, a red and white fringed awning over it and a sand pail and a shovel."

My husband smiled a cheap little smile and said, "Sure, you're making mock. I can whip him up a sandbox for a fraction of that price.'

The first night we drove 20 miles across town to a dump in search of a semi-truck tire. It cost us $3.

The second night, we drove to the lumber yard for $5 worth of scraps to construct a platform to keep the semi-truck tire from killing the grass.

The third night after dinner was spent painting the platform and semi-truck tire with paint. costing $3.50.

The next evening, we backed up the station wagon covered with $1.50 of wall-to-wall plastic and loaded up 300 pounds of white sand at $1.65 per hundred

Since the sand wasn't deep enough to write your name in, we returned the next night for another 300 pounds at $1.65 per hundred pounds. The tire was still without shade, so we invested in a large beach umbrella ($5.95) and threw in a shovel and pail for $1.25.

Friday was a big night for us. The sandbox was finished. Right after dinner, we took our coffee into the yard to see how Brucie was enjoying his Sandbox Hilton.

We tilted the umbrella and peeked into the semi spare tire. A cat had littered in it. We found Brucie sitting in the dirt digging in the shrubbery with a soup spoon.

Now, there are times when a wife knows she should keep her mouth shut and other times when it's worth the cost of a lawyer to open it. "Let's see," I said, "$3 plus

$5. plus $3.50, $9.90, $1.50, $5.95 and $1.25 comes to $30.10. What fraction is that of $12.88?'

cough while examining a patient almost invariably he'll hear the factious comment, "I'll refer you to a good doctor!" Or, 'Doctor, you shouldn't be sick. After all, you know how to take care of yourself.

Actually, doctors are heir to all of the same physical and their patients. There is no greater fallacy than the belief that doctors are not vulnerable simply because they have a medical degree.

I should add, in defense of the neglect by a doctor of his own health, that he is able to evaluate many symptoms as they arise and solve them him-Related to your question and my answer lies an important aspect of the relationship between doctors and their patients. Patients must realize that doctors do get sick. They do have emotionally trying situations within the framework of their home and family. They are burdened by all of the psychological and social pressures of modern society. An understanding of this may make patients realize that the doctor cannot always be the Rock of Gibraltar at all hours of the day

Even the most patient and good-humored doctor will have an alteration of personality if outside pressures become burdensome. Mutual appreciation of each other's occasional inconsistencies helps to solidify this important relationship.

Now, Miss E., I want to thank you for reminding me to set up an appointment for my annual physical!

Is there any danger in overusing the aspirin substitutes advertised on TV commercials? - Mr. T. L., Pa.

Dear Mr. L.:

The most popular substitute for aspirin is the drug acetaminophen. It is generally accepted to be safe and useful as a pain reliever. This drug like any other drug taken in large quantities, can be dangerous emotional problems that affect and can do damage to some of the vital organs of the body, especially the liver. Let me emphasize that the danger lies in huge doses, not the one usually recommended for the simple relief of pain. UNITED ARTISTS THEATRES

Pardon Research In Works

PLAINS, Ga. (AP) — The man helping President-elect Jimmy Carter formulate a pardon for Vietnam-era draft evaders is a Houston lawyer who has handled court cases dealing with the military draft and pro-tests against the Vietnam war. The Carter aide, David Berg, Berg, 34, is on leave from his Houston law firm to assist in Carter's transition to the arresidency. In addition to his work on the pardon issue, Berg is one of Carter's transition representatives with the Justice Department.

Carter has said he would issue a pardon rather than declare amnesty to draft violators because, he said, amousty in-dicates that what the evaders had done was right, while a pardon only indicates for-giveness and offers an opportunity to begin again.

During the campaign, Carter drew harsh criticism for his stand from a number of Auterans groups and was booed when he repeated it before the national convention of American Legion in Scattle last

Carter has promised that he will issue a pardon to draft violators during the first week of his administration, which begins with his inauguration on

But he has said his pardon program would not extend to military deserters, who will be handled on a case-by-case basis.

Associated Press Writer CALDIRAN, Turkey (AP) — The government stepped up efforts to evacuate homeless survivors of the earthquake in eastern Turkey after a bhzzard whipped the devastated area with heavy snow and tey winds.

"We are afraid that some mountain villagers who survived the quake may now freeze death." the deputy governor the province, Muzaffer Yuce, said Sunday.

"We consider this snowstorm, circumstances, as great a calamity as the quake itself " said Cov. Ahmet Toson

The governor ordered all men between the ages of 18 and 65 in Van, the provincial capital, to join rescue squads. He also or-dered all private vehicles confiscated to bring in survivors from areas still isolated by the quake Wednesday.

The government rushed in snow moving equipment to clear

Snow Adds To Earthquake Calamity

By ISMAIL KOVACI Associated Press Writer

The government stepped up efvivors of the earthquake in eastern Turkey after a blizzard with heavy snow and icy winds.

We are afraid that some mountain villagers who survived the quake may now freeze to death," the deputy governor of the province, Muzaffer Yuce, itself," said Gov. Ahmet Tosun. The governor ordered all men between the ages of 18 and 65 in Van, the provincial capital, to join rescue squads. He also ordered all private vehicles confiscated to bring in survivors from areas still isolated by the farmers, and many were worried about their animals.

Deer Hunt Probe Asked

By ASSOCIATED PRESS WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Rep Philip E. Ruppe has asked for an investigation of a proposed post-season deer hunt in an Upper Peninsula area. Ruppe said the National Parks Service, which agreed to the proposed hunt, is trying to pursue its own goals "irregardless of the wishes and desires of the people." The NPS agreed to permit the Michigan Department of Natural Resources to hold the post-season laint, to begin Jan. Bi in the Beaver Basin area of Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore, DNR officials said the Beaver Basin herd, once fed by a private hinting club which owned the area, has grown too large to survive now that the feeding program has been discontinued. The suggist season was set to trim the size of the herd, officials said. However, Ruppe said he received a letter from Alger County Prosecuting Attorney William A Werner raising allegations that NPS personnel will be particinating in the hunt

Officer Forced Off Road

ROSEVILLE, Mich. (AP) - A Clinton Township police officer was severely injured in an early morning chase today when a pickup truck driven by a 15-year-old girl forced his cruiser off the road and into a tree, local authorities said. Patrolman Richard Prochniewski, 41, an eight-year veteran of the force, was listed in stable condition at Mount Clemens Hospital, said dispatcher Robert LaMarre. The girl, listed as a runaway since Thanksgiving Day, apparently went to her father's home and stole his pickur truck. The father reported the theft and police broadcast an alarm for the truck. LaMarre said. The girl sideswiped the Clinton cruiser several times and finally forced it off the road. The car was virtually demolished when it hit the tree, LaMarre said.

One Firing Confirmed

DETROIT (AP) — One person has been fired and at least two others face dismissal in a probe of allegations of sexual abuse at a Department of Social Services youth home in Detroit, according to state officials. Joseph LaRosa, a DSS deputy director in Lansing. confirmed over the weekend that Vincent Martin of Detroit was fired last month from his job as supervisor of the Tuwnsend Intake Center. The dismissal followed allegations by teenaged boys at the cast-side Detroit facility that Martin had made sexual advances to them. Martin is appealing his firing and a grievance hearing is scheduled next week. Two other unidentified state employes face dismissal because they allegedly knew about the charges but failed to report them to state social services officials or to police,

Charles Smith, 59 Coloma died Sunday night of an ap-parently self-inflicted gunshol wound, Berrien sheriff's depa-

Deputies said Smith was found in a field off Shanghai mad, Pipestone township, when he failed to return from hunting rabbits, according to a report filed by Deputy Jon Speacer. Smith was found about 9 p.m. by James Oliver, 5550 Shanghai road, with whom Smith was staying for the weekend, Spencer said.

Dr. Richard Lininger, assistant Berrien medical examiner said "tentatively it appears to be a sujcide," but said he has not concluded his investigation and has made no definite ruling. Smith, for whom deputies listed only an address of P.O. Box 177, Coloma, was dscribed as a "lonesome type," Spencer reported.

Spencer said there were no signs of a struggle in the fresh snow and "from the position of the body and weapon it appears that Mr. Smith killed himself. A 12-gauge shotgun was found nearby and Smith died of a single would to the head, Spencer reported. The body was taken to the morgue at Memorial bospital, St. Joseph. pending attempts to locate next

Charles Smith

Charles Smith, 59, Coloma, died Sunday night of an apparently self-inflicted gunshot wound, Berrien sheriff's deputies reported.

Deputies said Smith was found in a field off Shanghai road, Pipestone township, when he failed to return from hunting rabbits, according to a report filed by Deputy Jon Spencer Smith was found about 9 p.m. by James Oliver, 5550 Shanghai road, with whom Smith was staying for the weekend, Spencer said.

Dr. Richard Lininger, assistant Berrien medical examiner said "tentatively it appears to be a suicide," but said he has not concluded his investigation and has made no definite ruling.

Smith, for whom deputies listed only an address of P.O. Box 177, Coloma, was dscribed as a "lonesome type," Spencer reported.

Spencer said there were no signs of a struggle in the fresh snow and "from the position of the body and weapon it appears that Mr. Smith killed himself." A 12-gauge shotgun was found nearby and Smith died of a single wound to the head. Spencer reported. The body was taken to the morgue at Memorial hospital, St. Joseph, pending attempts to locate next

"The biggest problem, as I see it," says Dr. Ackerman is the ignorance of the whiplash problem. Not a day goes by that someone doesn't suffer a whiplash that he or she is unaware of at least he or she doesn't know about it for days or even weeks when its telltale and devastating after-effects show up form of pain and problems. Dr. Ackerman points to U.S. Air Force studies to substantiate the cause of the whiplash. 'They (the USAF) have shown that the normal neck can withstand a forward snapping of 50 times the force of gravity before producing major injury. But they also show," says the prominent St. Joseph doctor, that the neck can withstand a backward snap...or whip...of only five times the force of gravity before injury can be sustained.'

At a mere 25 miles per hour, a crash impact creates force exceeding 3,400 pounds on the victim's neck What does this mean in terms of potential injury?

This sudden, forceful movement often stretches or sprains the ligaments and muscles which spinal segments within a critical range of movement or position. says Ackerman.

Failure of the holding ligaments to support the the spinal spine allows segments to become displaced, thus altering the normal mechanical balance of the spine," he continues.

"This increased stress results in eventual degenerative disease of the disc with 'spur' formation and the spurs' will occlude the spinal nerve openings.

It is important to note that virtually every person involved in a moving vehicle accident suffers a whiplash injury to some degree.

"Granted, its symptoms are not always readily clear," says Dr. Ackerman. "Some individuals experience no pain or discomfort for weeks following the accident."

those involved in accidents to seek competent injury diagnosis. 'Left untreated, a whiplash injury can eventually open a veritable 'Pandora's

Box' of painful, chronic health problems that can just as eventually lead to a lifetime of misery. As the old commercial once said...'don't be half-safe' Dr. Ackerman notes that in a whiplash "the other half is your life. Ackerman maintains offices at 3918 Red Arrow

U.S. Fuel Laws Worry Chrysler

DETROIT (AP) - Chrysler Corp. says new federal fuel economy laws could cat U.S. car sales by three million units a year and could cost up to a million auto workers their jobs, because motorists won't accept smaller-sized cars.

The No. 3 automaker says it will spend more than $1.8 billion between now and 1985 to downsize its cars to meet the new fuel economy requirements.

The federal fuel efficiency act requires that carmakers change their 1978 models to get an average 18 miles-per-gallon New cars in 1980 will have to average 20 m.p.g.; and by 1985, 27.5 m.p.g.

Chrysler officials predict full-requirements go into effect. The comments are in a report Chrysler has filed with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co. also filed reports, but made public only abbrevialed versions.

The GM and Ford reports showed similar concerns about the impact of the mileage law, but were not as detailed on how models would have to be redesigned to meet the law. Currently, Chrysler said, only six per cent of its models are subcompact-sized. The report said subcompacts would make up nearly 50 per cent of the firm's line by 1980, and as much as 70 per cent by 1985. "The problem is the public probably won't accept smaller cars," Chrysler's report said. "What will happen is a drop in hold onto cars they have and

AMC this model year revived rebate programs on its sub-compact Gremlin and Pacer models in an effort to stimulate sales. Although mid-November sales of both models were up over previous months, the company reported sales still down sharply from the previous year, GM also is offering rebates on ils subcompact Chevrolet Vega. Chevette and Pontiac Astre models. Despite the money-back offer, GM this munth reported its subcompact sales were off nine per cent from the same period last year.

LOS ANGELES (AP) —
When New York reporters set out to wander the country, their travel time usually is limited and their assignment specific - report a trend, the mixed of the nation, that kind of thing.

Not Charlie Kuralt. Since October 1967, he's wandered the U.S., logging 30,000 miles a more specific year, with no more specific assignment than to find good human interest yarns for the CBS Evening News. The late Ernie Pyle did this sort of thing brilliantly for newspapers in the 1930s, although his stories included some extremely sad, tragic tales. Those of Kurak almost always are on the upbeat side.

Kuralt, 42, freely admits Pyle's wanderings and humaninterest yarns inspired him when he got in the reporting business in 1955, writing a column called "People" for a newspaper in Charlotte, N.C. And while he's covered major stories involving those worthy of international import and consequence in his 20 years al CBS, his approach to his "On the Road" pieces is not exactly aimed at making headlines. "I try to make them as irrelevant as I can, not about anything much, just about urdinary people who wouldn't otherwise be on television," readily admits the footloose native of Wilmington, N.C.

Kuralt's travels take him to small-town and rural America seeking stories on bygone days and ways of life today that are foreign to city dwellers.

He spoke by phone from New York, where he hangs his hat when not travelling by bus with his Chicago-based crew. He was asked if CBS makes him file at least one piece a week, the equivalent of a weekly

"No, there's never been a quota for the show," he said.
"There come weeks when they can't use anything, so the bank (of his stories) tends to build up, they're happy.

mail, he says.
"We get maybe a couple of hundred letters a week, sug-gesting stories," Kuralt said. "We keep a file in our bus on stories state by stale, and in each state we pull out the file on that state.
"But we kind of hope that while on the way to a story we stumble on to another one. We really do go slow and talk to people, and I guess we stumble into stories that way about a third of the time."

A nice thing about the job, he adds, is that be never has been tald to interrupt his travels, dash off and cover a breaking story, although that can be ordered or he'll do it if no one else is immediately available. "They (CBS News gurus) sort of forget about us," he chuckled. "If we were in California, say, when a big earthquake came, of course we'd go to work. But it just hasn't happened that way.

IN BROAD DAYLIGHT

Who knows what evil lurks in the heart of man? The camera knows

But where, alas, is the camera when the safecracker cracks, when the pickpocket picks, when the purse snatcher snatches? Where was the lens when the boys in Boston dropped in on Brinks? When Clifford Irving sat down at the typewriter? When Jesse James did his ride-in banking?

Out to lunch, that's where. But here we have crmie most foul with 70,536 eye witnesses Crime not on the streets but crime on the basepaths.

See Yankee pitcher Johnny Sain hit the ball to second baseman Jackie Robinson of the Brooklyn Dodgers in the 1952 World Series.

Big Lake Freighter Aground

ESCANABA, Mich. (AP) - A missing buoy caused the ore freighter John Sherwin to run aground in Lake Michigan off Escanaba early Sunday morning, say Coast Guard officials. Officials said the captain of 806-foot vessel apparently didn't see a winter marker the Coast Guard had placed where the buoy normally was

See Robinson scoop up the ball and fling it towards first baseman Gil Hodges. See Sain's foot plop on the bag.

See Hodges lunge for the ball that has not yet arrived. See coach Bill Dickey coil in relief.

And see umpire Art Passarella start to give the out sign. Didn't you see it, ump? Didn't you see it? rages Dickey.

He's out, says Passarella, and so it stands. For, as every fan knows, the ump is always right. Even when he's wrong

Through some 40 World Series, photographer John Lindsay of the Associated Press peered down his telephoto cameras with but one thought: "Follow that ball." This could mean 300 or more shots a game, squeezing off his sequence camera on every close play

'Sometimes people try and save film, but I never was afraid to use it." Once before, during the 1948 Cleveland-Boston World Series, Lindsay was the only photographer to come up with the picture proving an ump's call in error.

As Sain touched the bag, Lindsay had another exclusive. "I was sorry about the umpire, but since it happened, I was glad I had it. Twice.

Viets 'Using' MIA's

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. (AP) - A Veterans of Foreign Wars officer says a letter from a Vietnamese official proves Hanoi is withholding information on missing American soldiers, the Macomb Daily reported today.

The letter by Do Thanh, first secretary of the Hanoi embassy in Paris, says a VFW official misinterpreted one of Thanh's earlier statements.

Do Thanh told a three-man American delegation in June that the Vietnamese would have more information on MIA's if problems with Paris Peace accord were resolved. Do Thanh acknowledged in his letter that he did, in fact, make the statement, but that the interpreter failed to convey that he was speaking in an allegorical manner.

But William Bennett, a national VFW official and past commander of the VFW in Michigan, claimed Do Thanh's verbal statement - repeated in his letter - was not misinterpreted.

Bennett says the letter 'clearly shows the cruel exploitation being waged by the Communists.

Bennett said he ordered the letter released today because he believes Vietnam should be kept out of the United Nations.

Lawrence Zatkoff, a Roseville attorney who was one of the three who met with Do Thanh in Paris, said the letter can be used by U.S. Ambassador to the U.N. William Scranton to "stick to his guns in denying Hanoi U.N. admission." Scranton's veto has kept Vietnam out of the

French Mayor Dies

LYON, France (AP) - Mayor Louis Pradel of Lyon, France's third largest city, died of cancer Saturday. He was 69 and was responsible for many building projects - including Lyon's subway, to open in 1978 - during his 20-year career.

Report Paints A Bleak Picture Of Urban America

AP Urban Affairs Writer DENVER (AP) - A report by the National League of Cities paints a bleak picture of urban America in 1976 as city officials begin debate here on which priorities they will press before the Carter administration.

> The report noted the percentage of Americans living in poverty increased for a second straight year in 1975.

The overall U.S. poverty rate was 12.3 per cent, but the rate in central cities was 15 per cent. According to the report, high unemployment and the nation's sluggish economy "reduced state and local revenues by $27 billion below full employment

"City residents are doubly struck; first in loss of jobs and income, then through reduced services and increased local taxes," said the report. Other major problems during 1976 were continued population loss by many large cities, as well as increased concentration of the poor into ghettoized city neighborhoods.

The growing ranks of black public officials saluted civil rights leader Roy Wilkins in a thunderous ceremony marked by a promise of urban aid from Jimmy Carter and Wilkins' appraisal of the quiet president-elect: "He means good.

Wilkins, who steps down next year as director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, received the Liberty Award on Sunday from the National Black Caucus of Local Elected Officials. He was lauded by black urban leaders, as well as Carter and Wilkins' successor at the NAACP, Benjamin Hooks.

"The cutting edge of the civil rights movement today is politics," said caucus president Maynard Jackson, mayor of Atlanta. In 1969, the first year that figures were compiled, 1,185 blacks held elected office at all levels of government. In 1976, the number is 3,979. Of these, 143 are mayors, many attending the National League of Cities

ESCANABA, Mich. (AP) — A missing buoy caused the ore freighter John Sherwin to run aground in Lake Michigan off Escanaba early Sunday morning, say Coast Guard officials. Officials said the captain of 806-foot vessel apparently didn't see a winter marker the Coast Guard had placed where the buoy normally was located.

See Robinson scoop up the ball and fling it towards first buserman Gil Hodges. See Sain's foot plop on the bag. See Hodges lunge for the ball that has not yet arrived.

See coach Bill Dickey coil in relief.

And see umpire Art Passarella start to give the out sign.
Didn't you see it, ump? Didn't you see it? rages Dickey.
He's out, says Passarella, and so it stands.

For, as every fan knows, the ump is always right. Even when he's wrong.

Through some 40 World Series, photographer John Lindsay of the Associated Press perred down his telepholo cameras with but one thought: "Follow that ball." This could mean 300 or more shots a game, squeezing off his sequence camera on come up with the picture proving an ump's call in error.

As Sain touched the bag, Lindsay had another exclusive. "I was sorry about the umpire, but since it happened, I was glad I had it. Twice."

Viets 'Using' MIA's

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. (AP) — A Veterans of Foreign Wars officer says a letter from a Vietnamese official proves Hanoi is withholding information on missing American sol-diers, the Macomb Daily reported today.

The letter by Do Thanh, first secretary of the Hanoi embassy in Paris, says a VFW official misinterpreted one of Thanh's earlier statements.

Do Thanh told a three-man American delegation in June that the Vietnamese would have more information on MIA's if problems with Paris Peace accord were resolved. Do Thanh acknowledged in his letter that he did, in fact, make the statement but that the interpreter failed to convey that was speaking in an allegorical manner.

But William Bennett, a na-tional VFW official and past commander of the VFW in Michigan, claimed Do Thanh's verbal statement — repeated in his letter — was not misin-

Bennett says the letter "clearly shows the cruel exploination being waged by the Comnunists."

Bennett said he ordered the letter released today because he believes Vietnam should be kept ut of the United Nations. Lawrence Zatkoff, a Roseville attorney who was one of the three who met with Do Thanh in Paris, said the letter can be used by U.S. Ambassador to the U.N. William Scranton to "stick to his guns in denying Hanoi admission." Scranton's veto has kept Vietnam out of the U.N.

Bears Hold Off Green Bay, Roller For 16-10 Win

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) -Most of the Chicago Bears insisted Green Bay's Dave Roller hadn't been a factor, but guard Noah Jackson was a notable dissenter.

"On that last scoring drive we had, everybody in the stands was chanting, 'We want Roller!' ' Jackson said. "I think it picked up our club instead. I know it sure picked me up."

Jackson and his offensive line teammates opened holes that helped the Bears pile up 201 yards rushing, including 110 in 27 carries by sensational Walter Payton. Bob Thomas added three field goals, including a tiebreaking 22-yarder late in the third quarter, and the Bears held on for a 16-10 National

The Bears ran 68 scrimmage plays to Green Bay's 57 in a sustained ground attack that prevented Roller and other Packer defenders from establishing a pass rush.

Roller, a Packer defensive tackle, was quoted last week as accusing the Bears of an illegal late hit on a play in which Lynn Dickey, Green Bay's No. 1 quarterback, separated a shoulder in the Bears' 24-13 victory at Chicago Nov. 14.

Roller reportedly had pledged retaliation at the expense of Bear quarterback Bob Avellini.

"Roller actually apologized to me on the field," said Jackson. who blocked Roller part of the time. "He said he didn't say what was in the papers. I think he's a better man than what he actually said."

"I think he regrets saying what he did," Avellini said. "He tackled me one time late in the game and just said, 'Hello.' He didn't play all that much, but our offensive line did a good job

"I'm sure he had no malicious intent," Avellini said. "I don't know the man, but from what I hear, he sometimes just runs off at the mouth.

Thomas' second field goal gave the Bears a 13-10 lead with 31 seconds left in the third quarter. He kicked a 25-varder for the final points with 9:46 to play, capping a drive started by Allan Ellis' second interception of the day and 22-yard return to

On the Packers' next series. Coach Bart Starr benched second-year quarterback Carlos Brown in favor of veteran Randy Johnson, signed as a free agent less than two weeks ago. Johnson promptly drove the Packers to second down at the Bear 40, but he fumbled on the next play and Roger Stillwell recovered for the Bears.

The Packers had one more chance, and Johnson completed passes to Rich McGeorge and Ollie Smith as they drove to Chicago's 38.

But Johnson twice threw incomplete to Smith, and his fourth down pass toward Smith was batted down by Craig

Starr, whose Packers had fought back from a 10-0 deficit to tie in the third quarter. "We simply didn't have enough when we needed it, and we didn't take advantage of several opportuni-

Starr referred not to Johnson's last two desperation casions when we just didn't drives, but to five secondquarter chances which netted the Packers only three points, a 45-yard field goal by Chester

Marcol missed attempts of 41 and 31 yards in the period, and two other drives were stopped when Brockington fumbled at the Bear eight and when Ellis intercepted a Brown pass at the Bear three. "We could have put board to possibly put us in a better competitive situation later, but we just didn't capitalize and it's really a shame." said Starr, whose Packers are 4-8 with a three-game losing

"There were too many octackle very well," he said. "At times, our tackling was just atrocious. I don't want to take anything away from the Bears, because they're a fine team. But I just didn't see anything out there to be pleased with. It's all very tough to accept.

A 23-yard scamper by Payton set up a 40-yard field goal by Thomas on the Bears' first series. They made it 10-0 later

Scott raced behind Willie Buchanon and gathered in an Avellini pass for a 49-yard scor-

"That was all play action." Avellini said. "We faked one of our favorite running plays-Walter Payton off tackle to the right. It wa second and one, and it was a matter of holding the rush, play action on the linebackers and maybe freezing Buchanon for a second.

The Packers gained their 10-10 tie 4:05 into the second half after a punt by David Beverly bounced off the Bears' Bill Knox and was recovered by Green Bay's Steve Wagner at the Chicago 12.

Brown passed 11 yards to Ken

However, Brown completed only five of 17 passes in the 6degree chill. A few passes were dropped, but others simply were off target. Prior to Marcol's missed 31-yard kick just before halftime, Brown overled Payne and underthrew McGeorge on successive plays. Both were wide open in the end

'Carlos had a tough time throwing on occasion, and I just wanted to see if we could get something going," Starr said of his switch to Johnson. "It was his first exposure in game conditions with us, and he hung in there real well and threw the ball right on target.

Colts, Rams, Pats Near Playoffs

Steelers Still Alive

From ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Baltimore Colts, Los Angeles Rams and New England Patriots are another step closer today toward what seems to be the inevitable. And the Pittsburgh Steelers are another step closer to what might well be called a miracle.

The Colts devoured the New York Jets 33-16 and the Rams gobbled up the New Orleans Saints 33-14 in National Football League play Sunday and edged within a step of clinching division titles, while the Patriots crushed the Denver Broncos 38-14 and moved within a victory of clinching an American Conference playoff

And the Steelers, playing on the brink of disaster, pulled out a 7-3 victory over Cincinnati in a snowstorm, keeping alive their hopes of returning to the Super Bowl which they have won the past two years

In Sunday's other NFL games, it was Washington 24, Philadelphia 0; Oakland 49, Tampa Bay 16; the New York Giants 28, Seattle 16; Cleveland 17. Miami 13: Chicago 16. Green Bay 10; Houston 20, Atlanta 14, and Kansas City 23, San Diego 20. Last Thursday, it was Dallas 19, St. Louis 14, and Detroit 27, Buffalo 14. Tonight it is Minnesota at San Francisco. If the 49ers lose, the Rams will become the National Conference West champions

Cincinnati had a chance to down Pittsburgh's chances of getting into Super Bowl XI and the games which lead to it. Instead, the Bengals have a gun pointed at themselves - and they could get shot down a week from tonight.

By beating Pittsburgh, the Bengals would have clinched the American Conference's Central title and killed the Steelers' chances of making the playoffs. Now, though, Cincinnati leads the division by one game with two to go. And while Pittsburgh plays relatively easy foes in Tampa Bay and Houston, Cincinnati has to face the Raiders, the winningest team in the league, next Monday night at Oakland before closing the season in New York against the Jets. A two-team tie would give the division title to the Steelers, who beat the Bengals twice. Franco Harris scored the game's only touchdown on a four-yard run late in the third quarter after the Steelers had recovered a Boobie Clark fumble at the Cincinnati 24. The Bengals' points came on Chris Bahr's 40-yard field goal in the Bert Jones tore up the Jets with three touchdown passes in a 24-point second quarter, covering 14 yards to Lydell Mitchell, five yards to Don McCauley and 31 yards to Roger

Carr, keeping the Colts one four-varder to Bob Klein - and ran seven yards for a TD in the game ahead of New England in Rookie Pat Haden passed for two touchdowns - a two-yarder to Lawrence McCutcheon and a Rams' romp over New Orleans. Steve Grogan of New England also did his pass-and-run thing throwing three yards to Al Chandler and bulling in from the one for a pair of TDs. Don Calhoun amassed 177 yards on the ground and rookie Mike Haynes returned a punt 62 yards for a touchdown, ending Denver's hopes of making the playoffs.

"Every time the Eagles made a mistake, we capitalized," said Washington quarterback Billy. Kilmer, who threw three touchdown passes, the first following a 45-yard punt return by Eddie Brown, the next two after fumble recoveries by Dennis John-

Oakland got a pair of one-yard touchdown plunges by Mark van Eeghen and a pair of scoring passes by Ken Stabler - nine vards to Warren Bankston and 25 to Cliff Branch - in remaining the league's winningest team at 11-1 and further solidifying Tampa Bay's chance of becoming the first NFL team to finish at 0-14.

Seattle, the other expansion team, jumped to a 9-0 firstquarter lead on Sherman Smith's two-yard touchdown run and John Leypoldt's 45-yard field goal. But by halftime, the Giants were on top and they finished that way as Craig Morton threw for two touchdowns and Gordon Bell ran for two.

Brian Sipe threw for two touchdowns and Don Cockroft kicked a late field goal in a sudden snowstorm for Cleveland's points - but it was the defense that really beat Miami by holding off the Dolphins in the final seconds.

Houston got helping hands from quarterback John Hadl and linebacker Robert Brazile in beating Atlanta, First, Hadl unleashed a 40-yard touchdown pass to Billy Johnson, then Brazile batted down Kim McQuilken's fourth-down pass from the Houston six into the Oilers' end zone with about a

Team Work Harbor Key

Benton Harbor basketball coach Earl McKee is hoping to bring out that one characteristic in his Tiger team this season.

'We don't have anybody who thinks they can take the ball and win the game on their own," McKee says. "I think we'll be more consistent as a team than we were a year ago.

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) - The Pontiac Silverdome may become the silver lining in the Michigan High School Athletic Association's football cloud.

The four state championship games, which were played in the Silverdome in two sessions on Saturday, drew a paid attendance of 29,423 fans, bringing smiles of relief and joy to MHSAA Executive Director Al Bush and his assistant, Vern

The attendance figure was almost double the number of fans who turned out last year in ice box-like weather at two sites -Western Michigan University and Central Michigan Univer-"I can't tell you we'll be back here next year, nor can I tell you we won't," Bush told the more than 300 sportswriters and broadcasters on hand Saturday - the largest media contingent ever to gather for a state high school athletic event. "But I'll tell you this," Bush said, "we're mighty pleased which we have been treated."

Bush said the MHSAA's Football Playoff Committee would meet in February to "consider all aspects of the playoffs and would turn its recommendations over to the Representative Council for final action in May

Sources close to the Silverdome's management indicated that the Pontiac Metropolitan Authority also was happy with Saturday's 12-hour football bash and likely would offer the state's finest football facility again next November.

The stadium authority reportedly rented the Silverdome to the MHSAA for only 18 per cent of the nearly $80,000 gross gate. With that kind of purse, the MHSAA is expected to have a little left over after paying the expenses of all eight competing teams plus security guards, game officials and an assorted working force.

Bush was noncommittal on the matter of expanding the tournament format to eight teams in each class.

Bears Hold Off Green Bay, Roller For 16-10 Win

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) - Packers Most of the Chicago Bears in-sisted Green Bay's Dave Roller hadn'i been a factor, but guard Noah Jackson was a notable

On that last scoring drive we had, everybody in the stands was chanting, 'We want Roller!' "Jackson said, "I think it picked up our club instead. I know it sure picked me up."

Jackson and his offensive line teammates opened holes that helped the Bears pile up 201 yards rushing, including 110 in 27 carries by sensational Walter Payton Bob Thomas added three field goals, including a tiebreaking 22-yarder late in the third quarter, and the Bears held on for a 16-10 National

The Bears ran 68 scrimmage plays to Green Bay's 57 in a sustained ground attack that prevented Roller and other . Packer defenders from establishing a pass rush.

Roller, a Packer defensive tackle, was quoted last week as accusing the Bears of an illegal late hit on a play in which Lynn Dickey, Green Bay's No. 1 quarterback, separated a shoulder in the Bears' 24-13 victory at Chicago Nov. 14.

Roller reportedly had pledged retaliation at the expense of Bear quarterback Bob Avellini.

"Roller actually apologized to me on the field," said Jackson, who blocked Roller part of the time. "He said he didn't say what was in the papers. I think be's a better man than what be actually said."

"I think he regrets saying what he did," Avellini said. "He tackled me one time late in the game and just said, 'Hello.' He didn't play all that much, but our offensive line did a good job on him.

"I'm sure he had no maticious intent," Avellini said. "I don't know the man, but from what I hear, he sometimes just runs off gave the Bears a 13-10 lead with 31 seconds left in the third for the final points with 9:46 to play, capping a drive started by Allan Ellis' second interception of the day and 22-yard return to

On the Packers' next series, Coach Bart Starr benched second-year quarterback Cartos Brown in favor of veteran Randy Johnson, signed as a free agent less than two weeks ago. Juliuson promptly drove the Packers to second down at the Bear 40, but he fumbled on the next play and Roger Stillwell recovered for the Bears.

The Packers had one more chance, and Johnson completed passes to Rich McGeorge and Offic Smith as they drove to Chicago's 38.

But Johnson twice threw incomplete to Smith, and his fourth down pass toward Smith was batted down by Craig Clemons with 1:17 left.

"It got away from us," said-arr, whose Packers had fought back from a 10-0 deficit to lie in the third quarter. "We samply didn't have enough when we needed it, and we didn't take advantage of several opportum-

Starr referred not to Johnson's last two desperation drives, but to five secondquarter chances which netted the Packers only three points, a 45-yard field goal by Chester

Marcol missed attempts of 41 and 3t yards in the period, and two other drives were stopped when Brockington fumbled at the Bear eight and when Ellis intercepted a Brown pass at the "We could have put at least some points on the board to possibly put us in a better competitive situation later, but we just didn't capitalize and it's really a shame. said Starr, whose Packers are 48 with a three-game losing streak.

"There were too many casions when we just didn't tackle very well," he said. "At times, our tackling was just atroccous. I don't want to take anything away from the Bears, because they're a fine team. Hot I just didn't see anything out there to be pleased with. It's alf very tough to accept,"

A 23-yard scamper by Payton set up a 40-yard field goal by Thomas on the Bears' first series. They made it 10-0 later

Scott raced behind Willie Buchanon and gathered in an Avellini pass for a 49-yard scoring play

"That was all play action," Avellan said, "We faked one of our favorite running plays-Walter Payton off tackle to the right. It was econd and one, and it was a matter of holding the rush, play action on the latebackers and maybe freezing Buchanon for a second.

Colts, Rams, Pats Near Playoffs

Steelers Still Alive

The Baltimore Cotts, Los Angeles Rams and New England Patriots are another step closer today toward what seems to be the inevitable. And the Pittsburgh Steelers are another step closer to what might well be called a miracle.

The Coits devoured the New York Jets 33-16 and the Rams gobbled up the New Orleans Saints 33-14 in National Football League play Sunday and edged within a step of clinching division titles, while the Patriots crushed the Denver Broncos 38-14 and moved within a victory of clinching an American Conference playoff

And the Steelers, playing on the brink of disaster, pulled out a 7-3 victory over Cincinnati in a snowstorm, keeping alive their hopes of returning to the Super Bowl which they have won the past two years. Sunday's other NFL games, it was Washington 24, Philadelphia 0; Oakland 49, Tampa Bay 16; the New York Giants 28, Seattle 16; Cleveland 17, Miami 13; Chicago 16, Green Bay 10; Houston 20, Atlanta 14, and Kansas City 23, San Diego 20. Last Thursday, it was Dallas 19. St. Louis 14. and Detroit 27. Buffalo 14. Tonight it is Minnesota at San Francisco. II become the National Conference

Cincinnati had a chance to Pittsburgh's chances of getting into Super Bowl XI and the games which lead to it. Instead, the Bengals have a gun pointed at them-selves — and they could get shot down a week from lonight.

By beating Pittsburgh, the Bengals would have clinched American Conference's Central title and killed the playoffs. Now, though, Cincinnati leads the division by one game with two to go. And while Pittsburgh plays relatively easy

Cincinnati has to face the Raiders, the winningest team in the league, next Monday night at Oakland before closing the season in New York against the Jets. A two-team tie would give the division title to the Steelers, who beat the Bengals twice Franco Harris scored the game's only touchdown on a four-yard run late in the third quarter after the Steelers had recovered a Boobie Clark furnble at the Cincinnati 24. The Bengals' points came on Chris Bahr's 40-yard field good in the first period.

Bert Jones tore up the Jets with three touchdown passes in 24-point second quarter, overing 14 yards to Lydell Mitchell, five yards to Don McCauley and 31 yards to Roger Carr, keeping the Colts one game ahead of New England in the AFC East.

Rookie-Pat Haden passed for two touchdowns — a two-yarder to Lawrence McCutcheon and a four-varder to Bob Klein - and ran seven yards for a TD in the Rams' romp over New Orleans. Steve Grogan of New England also did his pass-and-run thing, throwing three yards to Al Chandler and bulling in from the one for a pair of TDs. Joseph's hot streak scorched Lakeshore Saturday

The burning Bears used a 13minute sizzling string in the first half to mount a huge lead and sear the Lancers 76-55 in the season's opener at the packed Bear gym.

Lakeshore, hitting its first five shots from the floor, blazed to a 10-6 lead. But that was the last hurrah of the night for the Lancers as the Bears put their act together to outscore the visitors 31-9 to forge a comfy 37-19 halftime margin.

"We were just more teamoriented during that stretch and it paid off," voiced St. Joseph coach George Gaunder in the locker room after the game. "And our defense contributed to that stretch...only allowing them nine points. That's saying

Covert Pulls Out 2nd Win

ELLSWORTH - Covert connected on six key free throws in the last 40 seconds to pull out a 49-47 win over Ellsworth here Saturday night.

The Bulldogs lost the lead with two minutes to go but two free throws by George Starks with 40 seconds left tied the game. His brother Jerry then put the Bulldogs ahead by canning two more free throws as a result of a technical foul on the Ellsworth coach. Mike DeYoung made two more foul shots to put the Bulldogs ahead 49-45. Ellsworth then got a basket with four seconds left two points short.

Free-throw shooting was important as Covert, which had only one field goal in the last quarter, made 15 of 29 and Ellsworth, which missed 10 free throws in the last period, seven

Tigers Return Seven Lettermen

Team Work Harbor Key

Benton Harbor basketball coach Earl McKee is hoping to bring out that one characteristic in hls Tiger team this season.

We don't have anybody who thinks they can take the ball and win the game on their own," McKee says. "I think we'll be more consistent as a team than we were a year ago." The Tigers have posted nine straight winning seasons, including last year's 12-9 mark, and McKee believes there's no reason to expect anything different this time around.

"We hope to improve on last sir," he explains. "I don't feet we did as well last year as we should have. It's hard to tell how well we should have done because of the caliber of teams

"Our defense has to improve I think that burt us more than anything last year. We were sporty on defense. Defense is one thing we're working on this year. We have to get everyone to understand that they have to get out there and hustle on

Gone from last year's team are two all-LMAC players in forward Russell Steele, the league's top scorer, and center Bennie Bowers, Steele finished with a 21.5 scoring mark and Bowers came in at 15.4.. Also gone are forwards Leon Lewis and Fred Woods and guard Albert Watson.

Mason All-Stater!

Lakeshore's Mike Mason was named Sunday to the 22man Definit News afficiate high school football team.
The News' all-state story said Mason has "all the potential in the world at 6-8, 245..... fast for size......knocked down loads of passes."

Mason played offensive tackle and defensive end for the Lakeshore team which finished 6-3 and shared the Blossimiland conference championship.

Mason will be bonored along with the other all-staters on Monday, Dec. 6, at the 18th annual awards banquet of the Detroit Chapter of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame at the Rateigh House in Southfield. University of Michigan football coach Bo Schembechler lurn seven lettermen. Heading the list of returnees is 6-3 sentor guard Steve McNull, who averaged 10.1 points per game last year.

"Steve has the ability to be "steve has the ability to be the team leader that every team needs." McKee says. "He's willing to get things organized. He handles the ball well and controls the flow of the play. He had trouble with his shooting last year, but I think he's got it

The remainder of the Timer lineup is up for grabs. Keith Taylor, a 6-5 senior, is expected to get the nod at the center stor

Taylor scored 55 points a year ago in limited duty.

"Keith is strong and runs well for a big man," McKee says.

"He goes after the ball well. He's not a great finesse player, but he gets the ight denowith denowith. but he gets the job done with hustle and desire." The forwards will come from arming seniors Greg Childs (6-2). Derrick Joseph (6-6), Donald Green (6-4) and Reggie Smith (6-3) and 6-3 junior James Potts.

Senior Charles DeFrance may open at the other guard spot, but sophomore Ronald Page, the leading scorer on last year's junior varsity, is expected to see a lot of playing time

"Page may work his way into the lineup before too long," McKee says. "He's quite ma-ture for a kid his age. He has outstanding ability. He has a keen sense of the game. He can see things and feel bings that see things and feel things that "He has an outstanding jump shot and is a great playmaker. He has no trouble moving the ball to anyone who is open."

McKee is hoping to improve on last year's record, but the Tigers again face a rugged schedule. On tap are two games with Pattle Creek Central, as well is Indiana powers South Bend Washington, Gary Horace Mann and Gary Emerson, Benton Harbor will be in the St. Joseph Holiday Tournament, as usual, along with Detroit Denby, defending class A champ De-troit Catholic Central and the hosting Bears.

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) Midland Dow, East Grand Rapids and Flat Rock had the aces to win their first state prep football titles Saturday in the Silverdome, but it was "deuces wild" for Crystal Falls Forest Park as the Trojans won their samud straight

"I think it's a little less exciting this year," Crystal Falls Coach Dick Mettlach said after his club's 14-6 triumph over Flint Holy Rusary in the Class D contest. "But we're still very thrilled."

Dow outlasted Farmington Harrison, 36-27, in the wild and wooly Class A battle; East Grand Rapids earned a 28-7 Class B victory over Okernos and Flat Rock mauled Onaway, 30-8, to win the Class C crown.

The four games drew a paid attendance of 29,423 fans, virtually assuring the return of the spectacle to the Silverdome in 1977. Class D

Running back Marty Ball and All-State end Charlie Davis were Mettlach's "deuces," and the pair came through with key plays in the first quarter.

With 4:36 remaining in the opening period. Ball slanted off left tackle, veered to the near sideline and raced 74 yards for the game's opening touchdown One minute and 47 seconds later, Davis picked up a Flint fumble and rambied 25 yards for the Trojans' other touch-

There were three All-Staters on the field when East Grand Rapids squared off against Okemos for the state Class B crown. Unfortunately for Okemos, two of them were on the other side and they even tually tipped the scales in the Pioneers' favor. Okemos captain Dan Putman played well enough to earn a shot on the All-Tournament team selected in ballotting by the more than 300 sportswriters and broadcusters on hand at the Silverdome.

But Putman and his Chieftain can mates were finally wern dawn by Pioneers' end Mark Zabroske and the punishing running of fullback Mark Ver-meulen who battered his way for 101 yards in 29 carries. He also scored once on an eightyard pass from quarterback Greg Yeakey. Okemos drew first blood.

But East Grand Rapids coach George Barcheski calls his team 'n class ball club" confident they could come back.

And they did. The Pioneers turned their next possession in-to a scorting drive. With Andy Cole picking up six points on an cight-yard burst up the middle.

But Vermeulen, as he was throughout the game, was the workhorse of the drive. Lugging the ball on 10 of the 17 plays over Flat Rock proved to be just two much for Onaway as the Rams scored in every quarter — including a fourth period safety — to completely dominate the Class C contest.

All-State tackle Dave Steffen led a rock-ribbed Rams defense that held Onaway to a mere 74 vards on the ground and only 38 through the air. Steffen and company held Onaway fullback Colin Freel to just 40 yards in his 12 attempts. Flat Rock coach Larry Dugan

Dome Games Success

PONTIAU, Mich. (AP) - The Pontiae Silverdome may become the silver lining in the Michigan High School Athletic Association's football cloud.

The four state championship games, which were played in the Silverdome in two sessions on Saturday, drew a pald attendance of 29,423 lans, bringing smiles of relief and joy to MRISAA Executive Director Al Bush and his assistant, Vern

Norris.

The attendance figure was almost double the number of fans who turned out last year in ice box-like weather at two sites — Western Michigan University and Central Michigan Univer-

"I can't tell you we'll be back here next year, nor can I tell you we won't," Bush told the more than 300 sportswriters and broadcasters on hand Saturday - the largest media contingent ever to gather for a state high school athletic event.
"But I'll tell you this," Bush said, "we're mighty pleased with the size of the crowd and the professional manner in which we have been treated."

Bush said the MHSAA's Football Playoff Committee would meet in February to "consider all aspects of the playoffs and would turn its recommendations over to the Representative Council for final action in May.

Sources close to the Silverdome's management indicated that the Pontiae Metropolitan Authority also was happy with Saturday's 12-hour football bash and likely would offer the state's finest football facility again next November.

The stadium authority reportedly rented the Silverdome to the MHSAA for only 18 per cent of the nearly $80,000 gross gate. With that kind of purse, the MHSAA is expected to have a little left over after paying the expenses of all eight com-peting teams plus security guards, game officials and an assorted working force.

Bush was noncommittal on the matter of expanding the tournament format to eight teams in each class.

Lakeshore, hitting its first five shots from the floor, blazed to a 10-6 lead. But that was the last hurrah of the night for the Lancers as the Bears put their act together to outscore the visitors 31-9 to forge a confy 37-19 halftime margin.

USC Eyes National Title Third-Ranked Trojans Top Notre Dame

Southern California Trojans are taking two weeks off before beginning practice for their Rose Bowl date with Michigan, and it's not difficult to imagine what most of them are thinking

"The national championship is always on my mind," Trojan tailback Ricky Bell said following Saturday's 17-13 victory over Notre Dame.

USC quarterback Vince Evans, who threw a 63-yard scoring bomb to Randy Simmrin against Notre Dame, said, "Now it's on to the Rose Bowl . . . and hopefully No. 1."

Southern Cal, ranked third behind Pittsburgh and Michigan in the most recent college football poll, can take a big step toward the national title with a victory over the Wolverines Jan. 1.

But they must hope for outside help if they're to replace

Only Georgia, fourth-ranked, stands between Pittsburgh and its claim to being the best college football team in the na-

Notre Dame failed to cash in on four scoring chances in the first half of the clash in the Coliseum, then watched the Trojans build a 14-0 lead. The Irish scored their first touchdown early in the fourth quarter, and tacked on another with time running out.

But it was too late, as the Trojans ran their record to 10-1 and kept their hopes of overtaking Pittsburgh alive.

"The SC-Notre Dame rivalry is always a tough game." Trojans Coach John Robinson said of the series that began 50 years ago. "To me, beating Notre Dame by even one point in this series is worth a high national ranking. Notre Dame is just an outstanding team."

Irish Coach Dan Devine said losing to USC was a "bitter disappointment," but his 8-3 season on a winning note.

Notre Dame takes on Penn State Dec. 27 in the Gator Bowl. Devine was rather noncommittal when asked to compare USC with Pittsburgh, which beat Notre Dame 31-10 in the season opener.

Bowl Games Will Decide College Championship

From ASSOCIATED PRESS College football's national championship, still up for grabs, takes a back seat for the next month or so. The next order of business is the Heisman Trophy and No. 1-ranked Pitt's Tony Dorsett is expected to run away with it Tuesday. 'Touchdown Tony" wound up the regular season with a scintillating 224-yard display in Pitt's 24-7 triumph over 16thranked Penn State. That boosted his season yardage to 1,948.

Dorsett has 6,082 career yards, which figures out to almost 31/2 miles. But right now he has other things besides records and yardage on his

"I had all the records I really wanted going into this game,' he said. "A national championship, that's my No. 1 goal

However, at least four other teams also have that as their objective and Pitt must face one of them - fourth-ranked Georgia - in the Sugar Bowl new Year's Day. The Bulldogs eked out a 13-10 victory over Georgia Tech on Allan Leavitt's 33-yard field goal with just five seconds

The other challengers are second-ranked Michigan, bound for the Rose Bowl against third-ranked Southern California, a 17-13 winner over No. 13 Notre Dame, and fifth-ranked Maryland, which meets No. 7 Houston in the Cotton Bowl. And the national championship race will go right down to the wire i.e., the New Year's Day bowl games. Besides Pitt and Maryland, the only unbeaten-untied team in the country is No. 17 Rutgers. a 17-9 winner over Colgate but scorned by the bowls because of its unattractive schedule.

edged into fourth place ahead of Minnesota, 4-4 2

Denver moved into a fifth place tie with Minnesota with its victory over Duluth.

A third period goal by Craig
Norwich snapped a 3-3 tie as Wisconsin gained a split in its seriess with Notre Dame which had tied the game 3.3 late in the second stanza on a goal by Brian Walsh. The loss dropped the Irish to into a seventh place tie with idle Michigan Tech at 4-6 in league

What still may be one of the most potent scoring machines in pro hockey today, the "French Connection" line of the Buffalo Sabres, has been reunited. Center Gil Perreault. right wing Rene Robert and left wing Rick Martin are together again after an eight-game divorce.

Surprisingly, none of the three is overly thrilled, though their magic returned Sunday night and produced the second goal of the Sabres' 3-1 triumph we're together. Teams check,

"Some nights it may be okay for us to be together, but I think we're better off in the long run when we are separated." said Robert. "Detroit wasn't too bad, but when we play good checking teams like Boston and Montreal, they just throw out their best checkers at the blue line and wait for us." he said. Martin, who scored on a nifty pass from Perreault, said, "It's a real pain in the neck when we get so frustrated that we stay out for three minutes trying to get away from them and do something." The Sabres needed just 28 seconds to score, when Craig Ramsay slammed in a 15footer. Then Martin scored. Gary McAdam had the other Buffalo goal

Nick Libett spoiled Gerry Desjardins' shutout bid when Rick Wilson's drive from the point glanced into the net off

In the other National Hockey League games Sunday night, the Philadelphia Flyers downed the New York Islanders 5-3, the New York Rangers topped the Minnesota North Stars 4-1, the Colorado Rockies and the Los Angeles Kings tied 6-6, and the Toronto Maple Leafs topped the Cleveland Barons 4-1. Joe Watson, playing in the 700th game of his career, scored his 30th goal in 11 seasons, giving the Flyers their victory over the Islanders. 'The win was a big morale

"We couldn't afford to lose or even tie. If we lose, we're nine points back" of the Islanders, but instead they are within five of the Patrick Division leaders. who now have lost three of their last four games.

Wayne Dillon scored twice, with Ron Greschner and Dave Maloney scoring the other goals for the Rangers handed Minnesota its 11th winless effort in 12 road games this season. Dean Talafous tallied for the North Stars.

Denis Dupere scored a shorthanded goal - his first of two in the game - and Nelson Pyatt added a goal midway through the third period, highlighting a Colorado rally from a 6-3 deficit against Los Angeles.

Rookie goalie Mike Palmateer recorded his ninth victory in 13 starts and Borje Salming started the Toronto scoring after just 16 seconds of play as Toronto trimmed Cleveland.

LMC Loses Two In Blue Water Classic

PORT HURON - Lake Michigan College finished last over the weekend in the Blue Water Classic basketball tournament here.

The Indians lost to defending state champion Henry Ford College 96-80 and then were beaten by the host St. Clair Community College 89-87.

"It's tough on the road," LMC coach Lou Harvey said. "Henry Ford is the defending state champ and they played that way. We were in fast company in that game."

Walker pumped in 27 points for Henry Ford to lead the way. Henry Ford grabbed a 44-31 halftime lead and was never headed. Fred Walker paced LMC with 16 points. Jerry McLinton added 15 and Leon Lewis had 10.

A dismal five-minute span late in the first half cost LMC the second game. The Indians held a 39-22 lead with five minutes left in the first, but then saw St. Clair reel off 20 straight points to take a 42-39 halftime lead. LMC never led after that.

Nash pumped in 20 points to lead St. Clair. Dwayne Wright tossed in 21 for LMC to lead all beginning practice for their Rose Bowl date with Michigan, and it's not difficult to imagine what most of them are thinking

"The national championship is always on my mind," Trojan tailback Ricky Bell said following Saturday's 17-13 victory over Notre Dame. USC quarterback Vince

Evans, who threw a 63-yard scoring bomb to Randy Simmrin against Notre Dame, said, "Now it's on to the Rose Bowl ... and hopefully No. 1." Southern Cal, ranked third behind Pittsburgh and Michigan in the most recent college football poll, can take a big step toward the national title with a victory over the Wolverines Jan. I. But they must hope for outside help if they're to replace tion. Those two battle in the Sugar Bowl New Year's Day, with the game expected to conclude around the same time USC takes the field against Michigan.

"If we'd lost this game," Bell said after Saturday's triumph, "the Rose Bowl wouldn't have their hands full with the No. 13 Irish, an eight-point underdog

Notre Dame failed to cash in on four scoring chances in the first half of the clash in the Coliseum, then watched the Trojans build a 14-0 lead. The Irish scored their first touchdown early in the fourth quarter, and tacked on another with time running out.

But it was too late, as the Troisus ran their record to 10-1 and kept their hopes of over-taking Pittsburgh alive.

"The SC-Notre Dame rivadry ts always a lough game." Trojans Coach John Robinson said of the series that began 50 years ago "To me heating Notre Dame by even one point in this series is worth a high national ranking. Notre Dame is just an outstanding tearn."

- Irish Couch Dan Devine said disappointment," but his 8-3 team still has a chance to end its season on a winning note. Notre Dame takes on Penn State Dec. 27 in the Gator Bowl. Devine was rather noncom-mittal when asked to compare USC with Putsburgh, which beat Notre Dame 31-10 in the season opener.

He did say, however, that Taking nothing away from Pittsburgh, I think USC is probably a stronger team physically."

Irish reserve quarterback Rusty Lisch, who ran for one of Notre Dame's touchdowns and threw for the other Saturday, said he thought USC was better than Pitt.

But starting quarterback Rick Slager said, "I can't pick the better team, because we played against both and they both beat

Bowl Games Will Decide College Championship

From ASSOCIATED PRESS

College Football's national championship, still up for grabs, takes a back seat for the next month or so. The next order of business is the Heisman Trophy and No. 1-ranked Pitt's Tony Dorsett is expected to run away with it Tuesday.
"Touchdown Tony" wound up the regular season with a seinillating 224-yard display in Pitt's 24-7 triumph over 16th-ranked Penn State. That boosted his season yardage to 1,948.

Dorsett has 6,082 career vards, which figures out to almost 3½ miles. But right now he has other things besides arccords and yardage on his

"I had all the records I really wanted going into this game," The said. "A national championship, that's my No. I goal

However, at least four other leams also have that as their objective and Pitt must face one of them — fourth-ranked Genrgia — in the Sugar Bowl new Year's Day. The Bulldogs eked Jout a 13-10 victory over Georgia Tech on Allan Leavitt's 33-yard -field goal with just five seconds

The other challengers are second-ranked Michigan, bound for the Rose Bowl against third-ranked Southern Califormia, a 17-13 winner over No. 13 Notre Dame, and fifth-ranked Maryland, which meets No. 7 Houston in the Cotton Bowl, And Houston in the Conton Bowl. And the national championship race will go right down to the wire i.e., the New Year's Day bowl games.

Besides Pitt and Maryland, the only unbeaten-untied team in the country is No. 17 Rutgers. 2 17-9 winner over Colgate but 'scorned by the bowls because of its unattractive schedule.

Furniture No Longer Dominates 'Furniture City'

By PIET BENNETT Associated Press Writer

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) - A big bed brought Grand Rapids national fame as a furniture-making center exactly a century ago. During the 1920s, Michigan's second largest city provided more than 10 per cent of the nation's furniture. That was the period when Grand Rapids truly became marked in the nation's memory as "The Furniture City." During that decade almost half a century ago, furniture making accounted for nearly half the city's industrial activity. Now, the reputation as a furniture center lingers — with some justification — although the industry's peak years are long gone.

Even today, at least 28 firms in the city make about $250 million worth of furniture each year. But Charles Solon. executive director for the city's Furniture Manufacturers Association, notes the group's 26 member firms account for only $75 million of that figure. Two big non-members, American Seating and Steelcase, provide the rest, Solon says. But they specialize in institutional and stadium seating or office furniture rather than the household furnishings which brought Grand Rapids its lingering reputation. Furniture making of all sorts still employs nearly 11,000 workers in a city of just over

Yet, furniture making has been part of Grand Rapids almost since the city's founding in 1826, although sales originally were

Displaying the large, ornate Nelson-Matter bed at Philadelphia's Centennial Exposition of 1876 gave the local industry its springboard to national prominence. Within two years, enough interest was sparked to launch annual furniture showings in Grand Rapids that lasted until the 1960s. The showings, later expanded to two per year, drew more than 3,000 furniture buyers at their peak.

By the 1890s, one historian reported the furniture industry had become the most powerful force in the local economy, accounting for more than 30 per cent of all industrial capital and employing more than 30 per cent of the city's workers. Production values soared from just over $30,000 in 1850 to more than $5.6 million by 1890. And, the value of Grand Rapids' furniture industry production kept growing until peaking in the 1920s. Growth was based on several factors: a local supply of hardwood, the city's many skilled craftsmen, good transport by rail and water and a growing reputation.

Reasons for the decline are nearly as numerous. Some were the end of Michigan's lumber era with nearly all the hardwood cut, the Great Depression, no serious move into mass production, and competition from furniture centers in states with lower wage scales. "Grand Rapids furniture always was high priced, high style, high class. It's not mass produced. New, it's the sort of thing an interior decorator would order reproductions or special orders," says one industry observer analyzing why furniture making no longer dominates this former "Furniture City

Rush Is On For Lagging State Bills

Associated Press Writer

LANSING, Mich. (AP) - It's that time of year. The rush is on to get as many laws passed as possible, including some that have been slumbering on House and Senate calendars for months. Interest groups are pushing particularly hard on legislators not only to act favorably on their favorite bills, but simply to act before it's too late. Plans now are for the legislature to adjourn this year's session on Dec. 16, which leaves little more than 10 days of session.

BUCHANAN - Two teenage Buchanan boys were arrested vesterday morning on charges of possession of a doe taken out of season, police here said.

Police said the two boys, who are cousins and ages 16 and 14, were arrested after the doe was found yesterday on property here owned by the father of one of the boys. The two told police the animal was shot Saturday Dayton lake west of Buchanan.

The boys will be petitioned into probate court, police said.

F. Dean Morley Is Dead

NEW TROY - F. Dean Morley, 79, former state representative in one of Berrien county's house districts, died early Saturday morning at Mesa Lutheran hospital, Mesa, Ariz. where he was spending the winter.

Mr. Morley, whose home was in New Troy, served in the state legislature for six years as the representative from the first district. He was a Democrat. The district included the cities of Buchanan and St. Joseph and townships such as Baroda, St. Joseph, Three Oaks and Weesaw.

Mr. Morley was first elected in 1932 for the term which began in January, 1933, and served through 1938 when he lost a reelection bid.

The boundaries of the districts were later changed as were the number designations. The district now is mostly the 43rd house district.

In New Troy, Mr. Morley was the owner and operator of the Morley Flour mill until he sold it in 1963 to Carl Zielke. The mill is now named the New Troy

Mr. Morley was a World War I Navy veteran, a member of the Three Oaks Masonic lodge and a life member of the St. Joseph Survivors include his wife, the former Hazel Findel, whom he married June 16, 19; a son. Dean, Locust Grove, Va.; and a daughter, Mrs. William (Billie) Schmidt, Wheaton, Ill.

Most interest groups, and many legislators, would rather just fly though as much legislation as possible as the year ends and skip the bother of reviewing the same bills next year.

That is one reason why sessions tend to be longer as the year ends. Often, leaders decide to hold sessions on Fridays, unheard of during the rest of the Major items on the House and Senate calendars this year that are still awaiting final votes include:

Its chief sponsor, Rep. Raymond Kehres, D-Monroe, has said he will have nothing to do with reintroducing it next year if it fails to win approval this time around.

—Political reform legislation. Two bills are pending. One before the House would provide for public funding of gubernatorial campaigns, but it was vetoed earlier this year by Gov. William Milliken. Market Moves Ahead

NEW YORK (AP) - The stock market moved ahead again today, still benefitting from the recent decline in interest rates

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks gained a fraction in the early going. Advances outpaced declines by about a 7-6 margin among New York Stock Exchange-listed is-

Interest rates in many areas of the credit markets touched new lows since 1973 or earlier last week amid Federal Reserve moves designed to push those rates down and stimulate the economy

Brokers noted that the trend had raised hopes the tide of investment funds would flow away from interest-bearing investments and into stocks.

Today's prices included General Motors, up 1/2 at 711/4: Westvaco, down 3/8 at 273/4 Teledyne, up 1/8 at 701/8, and Tenneco, off 1/8 at 343/8.

On Friday the Dow Jones industrial average rose 5.66 .0 956.62, extending its advance for the week to 7.82 points. Gainers outnumbered losers

Two Teens Accused Of Break-In

BERRIEN SPRINGS - Two teenage boys were arrested Saturday night on charges of breaking into the McDonald dairy building on West Ferry street in the village, according to police here.

Berrien Springs village Oronoko township police said the two boys, ages 16 and 14, and from Decatur and Vandalia, were taken into custody near the dairy shortly after an employe reported the building had been entered through the roof.

Rubber stamps and keys taken from the office were recovered, police said. The two boys were released to their parents but are to be petitioned into Berrien county probate court on the charges.

Southerner Arrested At Niles

NILES - State police here said a North Carolina man wanted by authorities in New . Hanover county in that state, was taken into custody in Niles last night.

Troopers said Donnie Knight, 31, of Sanford, N.C., was arrested on felony warrants charging him with embezzlement and conspiracy.

He was arrested at the home of his sister, Nita Robbins, 215 Pokagon street, officers said. Police said he was lodged in the Niles city jail pending an extradition hearing.

Officers said they have no detalls available on circumstances that led to the warrants.

Plant Bedding Meeting To Be Held Nov. 30

The 10th Annual Western Michigan Bedding conference will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 30, at the Grand Haven Community center, Grand Haven.

A group of commercial companies will present exhibits, and a number of speakers will lecture on a wide variety of subjects, according to Jim Neibauer, extension agricultural agent.

Included on the program will be Dr. Bill Stout, Michigan State university agricultural engineer, who will speak on energy for the greenhouse: Dr.

Frank Laemmlen, MSU Entomology department, pesticide certification; Gary A. Hudson of Goldsmith Seeds, Inc., new techniques of seed germination; Dr. Roy Mecklenburg, MSU horticulturist, motivation of employes; Dr. William Carlson, MSU horticulturist, transplant-

INVESTORS' GUIDE Saving Is Chancy, But None Is Worse

By SAM SHULSKY Q. Until recently, with four children at home, we couldn't save much. Now that they've left the "nest" it will still take us two to three years to clear up our debts. I've argued that we should try to save some money but my husband feels that for people in our income bracket and walk of life savings would be wiped out by the first illness or problem that comes along in retirement. He favors spending what little we have in the way of extra money and enjoying life now. And besides, he says, the money we save now won't be worth anything in 15 years when

A. I'm reluctant to get into the middle of a philosophical debate between man and wife. I'm sure to wind up on the "outs" with both of you.

If it's any comfort to you, your husband has lots of company. The confidence in our economic and fiscal leadership is at such low ebb that many feel there is no point at all in saving a dollar in 1976 for use in 1996, and thereafter. I have some doubts, too - although that doesn't mean I can discard habits of a

Nor does it mean I am prepared to go along with anyone who declares he can live in debt constantly and who says he needs no cash reserves at all. The man who has no emergency funds to fall back on certainly can't be said to be in control of his day-to-day fiscal life. He leaves himself open to borrowing at high cost and to obligations which can only help drive him further into a financial

I grant you that saving money is chancy . . . no one knows what the money will buy when you turn to it. That's why long-term investors put money into ownership - via common shares. for instance. It gives them at

> Prosecutor Jeff Horner said the state will argue that Miss Yoshimura, 33, rented the garage in August 1971 as a weapons storage facility for radicals.

She has been indicted by a county grand jury on four counts of possessing bomb components, explosives, a machine gun and a destructive device with intent to injure persons and destroy property. If convicted, she could be imprisoned for five years to life.

Shortly after Miss Yoshimura's capture, lawyers filed a deposition which quoted her as saying she was living with Willie Brandt when police raided the garage. Brandt later pled guilty to illegal possession of weapons and is serving a one-to-20 year sentence.

"I feared I would be forced to testify against him in court. she said in the deposition.

Gets Offers Of Help

MILWAUKEE (AP) - Offers of help are pouring in for Eddie Lowman, the seemingly lost soul sent to the county House of Correction by a judge who said that was the only way Lowman would have a merry Christmas. Lowman, 56, was arrested on Thanksgiving Day after he refused to leave the municipal Safety Building, where he's lived for most of two years, eating sandwiches provided by janitors and rummaging through garbage cans for food and clothing. The attention this gave Lowman produced dozens of calls to police, county officials and Judge Ralph Gorenstein, all offering aid. A former Wisconsin policeman wants Eddie to spend Christmas with his family. An lowa farmer wants to give him a job. A man in New Jersey would like to give him a home.

- The phenomenon too will spur the fundamental trend toward shorter working hours. "If both are working they won't have too much family life unless they can get some time together. I look for more threeday weekends, for more periodic, optional days off and maybe double vacations, winter and summer. Much greater participation of women in politics. To date, our participation has been spotty and disappointing.

But Ginzberg insists, and properly so, "careers and politics are linked." Women will vote as individuals, Half the population has not really been free because of the sex factor.

The manpower expert also makes the crucial point that only about 40 per cent of the jobs in the U.S. pay enough to permit a man to support a family on his income alone. This, carried to its clearly logical conclusion, is a direct answer to the argument that our employment problem would be solved if only women who really don't have to work would go back to the kitchens whence they came. Ginzberg reports that for years he has been fighting the Labor Department for underestimating the factors that push us into the labor force: small families, more education, the desire (need) for higher levels of income, a sense of fulfillment.

The issue is not whether a woman works or not, but whether she is satisfied with her choice. In fact, the mere recognition that you, a woman, are an individual entitled to as many degrees of freedom as anyone else, lifts our century above all

Defends Racial Admission Policy

NEW YORK (AP) — Harvard University President Derek Bok says it is "innuise" for courts to declare that "race is of no relevance at all."

Bok, defending his school's policy of giving preferential treatment to minority students. said on NBC's "Meet the Press" Sunday that test scores and grades — although helpful in making adraissions decisions on "by no means the only fac-tur."

His Business Old Hat

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP) - Charlie Tweddle says if you one of his hats with your faded blue jeans and scuffed-Antone.

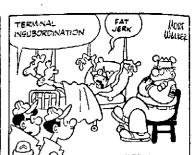

Twoddle, 39, "ages" hats to look like they just came off the weaty head of a cowboy back from a three-month cattle drive. He festoons them with feathers or furs or rattler skins, or maybe the face of a skinned tree squirrei. Then he adds what looks like a sweat stain around the headband. "These things sell real good," says Tweddle (pronounced Tweedle), "Right new I'm like a prospector sittin' on a gold mine with nothin' but a pick and shovel to get it out." Tweddie got into the business four years ago after an old Mexican fellow gave him a battered Steison in a bar just outside his hometown of San Antonio, Tex. Charlie loved it but lost it, so he set about to recreate it. When he did a whole bunch of them, they sold out in a few days. Now, working alone in his garage, Tweddle turns out about 60 hats a month that sell for $00 to $300 each. Sometimes the hats look kinda creepy in a way, but they have a certain kind of beauty," he says

Hundreds Honor Skyjacker

ARIEL, Wash. (AP) -Party-goers came from as far away as Arizona and Alaska to dine on buffalo stew, watch a commemorative sky-jump and speculate on the whereabouts of the guest of honor.

Skyjacker D.B. Cooper didn't show up, but the people of this small town didn't get excited when the legendary Cooper missed this weekend's anniversary commemoration of his parachute jump into infamy.

"He would have been welcome." said Germaine Tricola. owner of the general store and tavern. "But we looked at everybody's face who came in the door and we didn't see him.

On the night of Nov. 24, 1971, a skyjacker calling himself Dan Cooper hijacked a Northwest Airlines 727 on a flight from Portland, Ore., collected $200,000 ransom in Seattle and bailed out before the plane landed again at Reno, Nev.

Cooper and the money were never found, but authorities speculated he hit the silk above Merwin Lake in southwestern Washington, close enough to Ariel to serve as an excuse for a party in the town of 400.

The "Cooper Caper," as the festivity was dubbed, featured skydivers jumping into a vacant campground. musicians. Cooper sweatshirts and a goat named Fred tethered beneath a sign reading, "Cooper Reincar-

TO THE ELECTRIC CUSTOMERS OF THE INDIANA & MICHIGAN ELECTRIC COMPANY

The following Notice of Hearing is published pursuant to the Michigan Public Service Commission's Order in Case No. U-5073 dated September 17, Monthly hearings have been scheduled by the Michigan Public Service Commission for the purpose of considering authorization to permit the Indiana & Michigan Electric Company to include in the monthly billings to its customers charges or credits for changes in appropriate items of expense associated with purchased and net interchange power from a base cost, included in previously approved rate levels.

A public hearing will be held on Friday, December 10, 1976, at 9:30 A.M. in the offices of the Commission, 6545 Mercantile Way, Lansing, Michigan to consider inclusion of a proposed purchased and net interchange power adjustment credit of .67 mills per kilowatthour to be applied to bills to Indiana & Michigan Electric Company customers rendered in the January, 1977 billing period. The hearing shall be for the purpose of determining the amount of purchased and net interchange power expense for the calendar month of October, 1976 and the reasons therefor. Details of the calculation of the proposed adjustment will be presented along with a summary of net sytem kilowatthour requirements including details the various types of purchased and interchanged power transactions and circumstances necessitating any outages of installed capacity for a period exceeding ninety (90) days. This information will be available on and after November 30, 1976 at the offices of the Commission Secretary, 6545 Mercantile Way, Lansing, Michigan 49810 and at the Division offices of the Indiana & Michigan Electric Company 175 South Main Street, Benton Harbor, Michigan 49022. The Michigan Public Service Commission may either grant or deny the requested adjustment, in whole or in part, and may grant a lesser or greater adjustment than that requested. Interested parties may intervene by placing an appearance on the record at the hearing.

Jurisdiction in this matter is pursuant to Sections 1, 2, 6, 7 and 8 of 1909 PA 106, as amended MCLA 460.551 et seq.; 1909 PA 300, as amended, MCLA 462.2 et seq.; Sections 3 and 4 of 1919 PA 419, as amended, MCLA 460.51 et seq; Sections 4, 6 and 6a of 1939 PA 3 as amended, MCLA 460.1 et seq.; 1969 PA 306, as amended MCLA 24.201 et seq.; and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 1954 Administrative Code, Supplement No. 54, R460.11 et seg.

INVESTORS' GUIDE Saving Is Chancy, But None Is Worse

By SAM SHULSKY Q. Until recently, with four children at home, we couldn't save much. Now that they've left the "nest" it will still take us two to three years to clear up our debts. I've argued that we should try to save some money but my husband feels that for people in our income bracket and walk of life savings would he wiped out by the first illness or problem that comes along in retirement. He favors spending what little we have in the way of extra money and enjoying life now. And besides, he says, the money we save now won't be

If it's any comfort to you, your husband has lots of company. The confidence in our economic and fiscal leadership is at such low chb that many feel there is no point at all in saving a dollar in 1976 for use in 1996, and thereafter. I have some doubts. too — although that doesn't mean I can discard habits of a lifetime.

Nor does it mean I am prepared to go along with anyone who declares he can live in debt constantly and who says e needs no cash reserves at all. The man who has no emergency funds to fall back on certainly can't be said to be in control of his day-to-day fiscal life. He leaves himself open to borrowing at high cost and to obliga-tions which can only help drive him further into a financial

Yoshimura Trial Testimony Begins

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) -Wendy Yoshimura's lawyer is expected to contend that fear of false accusations drove her into three years of life as a fugitive.

After five weeks of jury selection, opening arguments and testimony were scheduled to begin today before Alameda County Superior Court Judge Martin Pulich.

Miss Yoshimura, now free on $25,000 bail, was captured with Patricia Hearst in September 1975. She fled arrest in £972, just hours after a weapons cache was uncovered in a Berkeley

Prosecutor Jeff Horner said the state will argue that Miss Yoshimura, 33, rented the garage in August 1971 as a weapons storage facility for radicals. She has been indicted by a county grand jury on four counts of possessing bomb components. explosives. machine run and a destructive device with intent to injure per sons and destroy property. If ronvicted, she could be imprisoned for five years to life.

Shortly after Miss Voshimura's capture, her lawyers filed a deposition which quoted her as saying she was living with Willie Brandt when police raided the garage. Brandt later pled guilty to illegal possession of weapons and is serving a one-to-20 year sentence. "I feared I would be forced to testify against him in court,' she said in the deposition.

"I was afraid, based on my knowledge of other political trials, that I might be falsely accused of the crimes invself. If so, I seriously doubted that I would be able to get a fair Attorney James Larson has not said how many witnesses he Intends to call in Miss Yoshimura's defense. WOMEN WORKING: 20TH CENTURY PHENOMENON

If I were to ask you what you thought was "the single most outstanding phenomenon of our century." the more thoughtful among you would respond, I suspect, with such answers as "the discovery of nuclear energy." "the spread of Communism throughout vasi portions of the globe," "man's ascent to the moon," "exploration of Mars"...

But no. In the considered opinion of economics Prof. Eli Gluzberg, world-renowned expert on the labor market and chairman of the National Commission for Manpower Bellion.

Policy:
"The single most outstanding phenomenon of our century is the flood of women into jobs.

"It's long-term implications are absolutely unchartable," he told Caroline Bird, author of the recent best-selling "Enterpris-ing Women," in an analysis to be published in the December issue of "Working Woman." The movement "will affect women, men, and children and the cumulative consequences will only be revealed in the 21st and 22nd centuries."

As a woman who entered the labor force — full-time, dedicated and determined years ago and before we because commonplace among jubholders, I always have appreciated the deep sig-nificance of our employment outside the home. Long ago, I realized how different are the roles of the working couple and the couple with one breadwinner and one bomemaker. I have written often and with conviction about the vital part we play in raising the living standards of a single family and the nation

And, while I angrily reject as blatantly sexist the argument that we are to blame for today's high unemployment rate, I also recognize that our plunge into the work force demands some memployment statistics.

But "the most outstanding phenomenon of the century Alone with Caroline Bird, I ask, Why such strong language?

overhand of our employment-

"I start with a piece of arithmetic," says Ginzberg. "Women are more than half the world. Since we live in a world in which makes and famales. The in which males and females live together, you cannot sig-nificantly alter one half the equation without aftering the total equation.

"We are not reproducing ourselves in many urban centers, and I think that is linked to women working." From this one fact. Guzberg foresees enormous implications.

—This alone could bring back the cities. "Once you decide not to have a large number of vocuesters, the suburban life is not bearable for most people, because there's nothing to do but wait all week for your hushand to come home. Bringing up four kids is a full-time job, but one child doesn't give you concell to do."

In addition to making metropolitan or city living far more acceptable, the "large labor market" of a city is es-sential to create real opportunities for large numbers of career women.

— The phenomenon too will spar the fundamental trend toward shorter working hours.

"If both are working they won't bave too much family life unless they can get some time together. I look for more three-day weekends, for more periodic, uptional days off and maybe double vacations, winter and summer."

— Nich present participation

 Much greater participation of women in politics. To date, our participation has been spotty and disappointing.

But Ginzberg insists, and properly so, "careers and poli-tics are linked." Women will note as individuals, Half the population has not really been free because of the sex factor."

The manpower expert also makes the cruelal point that rouly about 40 per cent of the jobs in the U.S. pay enough to permit a man to support a family on his income alone." This, carried to its clearly logical conclusion, is a direct answer to the argument that our employment problem would be solved if only women who really back to the kitchens whence they came. Ginzberg reports that for years he has been righting the Labor Department for underestimating the factors that push us into the labor force small families, more education the desire (need) for higher levels of income, a sense of ful-fillment.

The issue is not whether a umnan works or not, but whether she is satisfied with her choice. In fact, the mere recogintion that you, a woman, are an individual entitled to as many degrees of freedom as anyone else, lifts our century above all

ARIEL, Wash. (AP) --Party-goers came from as far away as Arizona and Alasku to dine on buffalo stew, watch a commemorative sky-jump and speculate on the whereabouts of guest of bonor.

Skyjacker D.B. Cooper didn't show up, but the people of this small town didn't get excited when the legendary Cooper missed this weekend's anniver-sary commemoration of his parachute jump into infamy.

"He would have been welcome," said Germaine Tricola, owner of the general store and "But we looked at everybody's face who came in the door and we didn't see him.

On the night of Nov. 24, 1971, a skviacker ealling himself Dan Cooper hijacked a Northwest Airlines 727 on a flight from Portland, Ore., collected $200,000 ransom in Scattle and bailed out before the plane landed again at Reno, Nev.

Cooper and the money were never found, but authorities speculated he hit the silk above Merwin Lake in southwestern Washington, close enough to Ariel to serve as an excuse for a party in the town of 400. The "Cooper Caper," as the festivity was dubbed, featured skydivers jumping into a vacant earnerround musicians Cooper sweatshirts and a goat named Fred tethered beneath a sign reading, "Cooper Reincar-

Q: How can a terrific comedy star like Bill Cosby find time to do all those commercials on TV? Seems to be that everytime I switch on the set I hear Bill peddling something or other. - S. P., Harrisburg, Pa.

A: Well, money just might have a wee bit to do with it. Bill's doing lucrative spot ads for an auto company and several food processors. He tells a friend his annual take is now seven figures. Bill has found time also, believe it or not, to write a thesis that earned him a Ph.D. from the University of Massachusetts, in his present hometown of Amherst. It's on the use of media in communications.

Q: One of my favorites has always been the French actress, Simone Signoret. What has become of her? - H.L., Austin, Tex.

A: Simone lives and works in France. Her autobiography has just been published and is the rage of Paris this month. The actress spent a year working with a collaborator on the book and then threw the entire manuscript away and wrote her story herself. The autobiography is extremely frank and candid and tells tales about everyone, including her husband, Yves Montand.

Q: When the Hollywood stars break up one marriage to start another, do the new matches work out any better? - D.P., Lexington, Ky

A: Some are just as rough the newest time around. For instance, Dani Greco (Buddy's ex) married David Janssen about a year ago. The other night they had a very hostile screaming match at L.A.'s posh celebrity restaurant, La Scala. Onlookers felt Janssen was replaying his old role from "Once Is Not

BOOK OF THE WEEK: The big talk in London is about a book called "Confessions of a Society Photographer," by Allan Warren. In it, he quotes Prince Charles about his two favorite actresses. They're Lauren Bacall and Barbra Streisand, Charles was quoted as saving that he met both actresses and was "too nervous to talk to Lauren Bacall," and as for Streisand, he said "I couldn't look into her eyes.

Q: Has Muhammad Ali really been hitten by the acting bug or is The Champ just going to do his own life story and then get back to sports? - M.D., Chicago.

A: Ali feels his real calling is the ministry and that will be number one in his life. However, the acting bug may have gotten to him for a little nip, because he says he wants to do one movie a year. Muhammad says Egypt and Libya are putting up $14 million for him to do a film about a black slave in ancient Egypt who becomes a warrior.

Q: Don't you agree that Roger Moore has settled nicely into his James Bond action thriller role? Will he keep on being 007 forever? - D.L., St.

A: We don't think so. Moore has finished up his three-contract deal on the Bond series and is getting very restless. The producers would have to come up with a lot more money (he's been getting half a million per film) to tie up the 49-year-old actor to any more of the Bond pictures

Q: We were intrigued by the news that Grace Kelly is now a member of the board of directors of 20th Century-Fox. Is this a volunteer job, or does Princess Grace get a salary? -V.J., New Haven, Conn.
